

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE, NOV. 11, 1886.

Ohio County has voted for prohibition by over 400 majority.

The Prohibitionists polled 25,000 votes in Ohio at the recent election.

There are 1,185 voters in Hopkinsville, this State—616 white and 569 colored.

It is thought at Washington that the oleomargarine tax will amount to $100,000,000 the first year.

There are forty-three pensioners in Bourbon County, who receive $436 a month from the Government.

Lyon County has been added to the local option counties of the State. The majority against whisky was 300.

MERCER COUNTY pays her County Judge $800, County Attorney $600, and Superintendent of Schools $500 per annum.

The Baltimore gas companies are engaged in a big fight, and good gas is now only fifty cents a thousand in that city.

THIRTEEN candidates for Lieutenant Governor are already laying their wires, and the counties have not all reported yet.

THE Hon. William Preston Taulbee's majority over Hurt for Congress in the Mt. Sterling district will be in the neighborhood of one thousand.

COLONEL TOM COWLEY, of Ballard County, is a candidate for Register of the Land Office. He has been defeated for the nomination twice before.

JAY GOULD made his daughter-in-law a present of $12,500 worth of railroad stock the other day. What liberal fellow these railroad monopolists are, anyhow!

FRANK HENDRICKS intimates that he is done with the Democrats and doesn't want any more nominations from them. He will run, hereafter, as an "Independent Free Trader."

LOCAL optionists have carried Cadiz County by 316 majority. It begins to look very much like the liquor men will be in favor of high license by the time the next Legislature meets.

HON. JOSEPH E. McDONALD will, in all probability, be the next United States Senator from Indiana. The aristocratic Republican, General Ben. Harrison, would have to step down and out, according to the latest figures.

FRANK LAWLER, Democrat, pulls through by sixteen majority in the Sixth Illinois Congressional district. These figures are a deal more comfortable than Campbell's majority of three over in the Seventh Ohio district.

The first colored man ever admitted to the bar in Lincoln was sworn in the other day after an examination by Messrs. Hill and Miller—George W. Gentry, the Republican politician and anti-prohibition orator.—Stanford Journal.

According to General John W. Finnell, there are not three lawyers in Lexington who are making a respectable living. The General is "disgusted" with the place, it is reported, and will remove to the "wild West," locating at Denver, Col.

The trial of Mrs. Charles McMichael against the Chesapeake and Ohio and Kentucky Central railroads for $40,000 damages in progress at Winchester. Her husband was an engineer, and was killed by the explosion of powder in a freight car at that place three years ago.

The claim is made that Dr. Hunter, the successful Republican candidate for Congress in the Third district of this State, is a resident of New Mexico, has voted there, and is consequently ineligible. The Democrats are investigating the matter, and will contest his election, if the charge is found to be true.

000 against the Kentucky Union Railroad Company and its endurers, on a number of notes. The company has 600,000 acres of land in the mountain counties, an immense saw mill establishment at Clay City, fifteen miles of railroad, etc., on which it will realize over a million dollars in a short time. The suit will be satisfactorily settled.

The City Council of Lexington has passed an ordinance requiring all vendors of milk to take licenses, which cost $30. This shuts out the bucket brigade, and the wagons have already raised the price from 20 to 30 cents per gallon. Here's a practical illustration of a protective tariff. The poor who buy milk are forced to pay more than its value, in order that the few dairies may be protected. Protection protects the monopolists and crushes the poor in the same proportion, wherever you find it.—Bourbon News.

MR. WILLIAMS failed to his support in the primary somewhat over four thousand votes. By taking part in the primary at all, these men were in honor bound to abide by the decision of the party. Instead of this, from 1,000 to 1,500 voted for the Republican nominee; 2,500 did not vote at all, and from 500 to 700 voted for Mr. Caruth.

This is the new code of political honor, but it would not be countenanced by the gamblers driven from the city last winter by the Law and Order Club, the members of which assume to be a law unto themselves and to every one else.

They tossed the nickel, and refused to abide by the decision of the nickel. They played at cards, and when they lost refused to pay. By their organized treachery—for clearly it was organized—Democratic control of the House was imperiled.

Boasting of the sympathy for the South, devoted as they declare to her interests, and at all times seeking her trade, these so-called Democrats, with the words of menace from Sherman and the incendiary appeals from Blaine sounding in their ears—with the fires of communism lighted in New York and the torch aloft in Chicago—write in a scheme to send to Congress from this district the most implacable Republican in Kentucky, the best hater, the one in most thorough sympathy with Mr. Davis and his followers.

But these gentlemen say they meant no harm.—Courier-Journal.

The above article, with a change of names and places, is peculiarly applicable to this county and Bracken, and expresses an idea that was very prevalent among some Democrats in the late election. What can we hope for in this district, if the friends of all the defeated candidates knife the nominee, as they did Judge Wall? He can stand such political treachery, but can the party stand it? Such conduct means political death to all recent and future candidates, unless the code of political honor is advanced to a higher standard.

SPEAKER CARLISLE says he has no intention of removing from this State, and that the recent report to that effect was utterly without foundation.

DAN RICE, the old circus clown, has set up a claim to the whole island on which stands the city of Galveston, Texas. Mr. Rice has in his possession an old Mexican land grant, obtained from Daniel McLaren, an original Spanish settler, which covered the claim.—Exchange.

Suits have been filed at Paris for $170,000, Governor James B. McCREARY, one of our purest and clearest headed Democratic politicians in the state, in a letter to a friend in this city, says: "I think there has much to be gleaned with in the late election. We carried New York City and State, also Colorado and came very near carrying Minnesota, New Jersey and Michigan. We carried the legislatures of Indiana, New Jersey and California and will gain three Senators. We also elected a majority in the House of Representatives."

Mrs. SARAH MAY, of Illinois, has brought suit in the United States Court at Louisville against Bourbon County for $13,000 damages for infringing on a patent jail lock, or process by which all the cells can be fastened from the outside. The petition alleges that the patent was granted to Edwin May, the deceased husband of the plaintiff, then residing at Indianapolis, Ind., on the fourth day of October, 1869, for fourteen years, and afterwards extended for seven years, thus keeping it in force till October 1st, 1880.

JUDGE W. H. SNEED of Frankfort says: "I would not be for W. C. Goodloe, of Lexington, for the Republican nominee for Governor, nor do I believe he will receive the nomination of the party. I would prefer W. H. Wadsworth, of Mayville, and think him the best man that could be selected to represent the State in the interest of the Republicans, but I think that if Cassius Clay wanted the nomination he could get it. Goodloe, by his policy to rule or ruin, has antagonized a very large element of the best workers in the party."

The Democrats of the country have nothing to be ashamed of in their record of the past eighteen months. Look at a few of the things that have been done: The national debt has been reduced $110,000,000.

The net balance in the treasury has increased $67,000,000. The gold coin in the treasury has increased $30,000,000.

The government expenses have been decreased $12,000,000. The government has paid more pensions than ever before.

HENRY GEORGE, the great leader of the Labor party and "Progressive Democracy" says: "The whole spirit of protection is against the rights of labor." In proof of this he adds: "The average wages of all engaged in the production of iron ore in the United States is the veriest trifle over a dollar a day. This is one of the protected industries, yet unprotected farm labor fares better than that." "More than a hundred years ago, when there was no tariff at all, and England was doing her best to break down the colonial industries, we manufactured pig iron and shipped it and sold it in England at a profit."
